ASSESSING & PROPERTY TAX UPDATE

Assessor Dave McArthur gave an update of an increase in residential, business, and industrial taxable values.

BUILDING OFFICIAL UPDATE

Building Official Dave Martinez brought council to date on the current building, renovations and permits within the city.

BUDGET CALENDAR REVIEW

City Manager Schroeder briefly reviewed the budget calendar for the 2020-2021 budget process.

GOALS & OBJECTIVES

Discussion was held to review and modify current G&O's. An updated version will be presented at a future council meeting.

2020-2026 CIP

Leanne Panduren reviewed in detail the CIP. She encouraged council to let City Manager Schroeder know of any additions or changes that need to be made. Final approval of the plan will occur in June 2020.

BUDGET DISCUSSION AND QUESTIONS

City Manager Schroeder touched on a few items that council may need to address in the budget. Department heads are currently working on their individual department numbers.

GOALS & OBJECTIVES

Council: Participating and actively work with and helping the DDA, more activities and things to do to draw people to downtown. Place stop sign(s) (4-way stop) at Main and Rising Streets, to help with dangerous situations. Streets are a major concern for all council members, along with sidewalk repairs and filling in the gaps. Keep rental ordinance on the open issues log for policy committee to consider reinstating. Putting together a citizen group for ideas and solutions for road funding and public safety. Goals and objectives were reviewed with comments.
